(IIMSAM Headquarters, New York, 27th January 2011) The Intergovernmental Institution for the use of micro algae Spirulina against malnutrition (IIMSAM) Goodwill Ambassador Hussain Al Jassmi participated in the Health Campaign for the World Cancer Day (Breast and prostate cancer). He filmed television scenes especially for this campaign organized by Rahbani studios in Dubai that appointed them to film the campaign on behalf of the Ministry of Health. Al Jassmi met the producer Marwan Al Rahbani and his son Mansour in the studio where they will be supervising and editing “the filming process related to this health campaign” which will be launched simultaneously with the World Cancer Day.

The Goodwill Ambassador Hussain Al Jassmi stated: “It is my pleasure as an Emirati artist to carry a meaningful message for the public. I want to express my joy in accepting the invitation to participate in the Word Cancer Day (Breast and Prostate Cancer) in order to spread the awareness to the community about the dangers of this disease for I think it is a noble humanitarian message, its aim is for everyone to be healthy. It is a patriotic duty that I must accept.
